

The Association of Collaborative Professionals (Calgary) are pleased to have the unique opportunity of bringing Nancy Ross and her team to provide us with a different approach to working in a Collaborative Team Model.

Why Nancy Ross?

Nancy Ross is a mental health professional who is one of the original co-founders of the Collaborative Team Model. Nancy Ross has been actively involved with the International Association of Collaborative Professionals from its onset and she has extensive Collaborative Team Model training experience. Her extensive experience in working with a Collaborative Team has led her to develop a structure and protocols that we may follow to effectively use the skill and expertise of our Divorce Coaches and Financial Professionals.

Who is this training for?

This will appeal to all those who have taken a team training and it is also structured for those who have not had Collaborative Team Training.

What does the training look like?

Nancy Ross, a lawyer, a financial professional and another mental health professional will be providing us with 2 and ½ days of extensive training.¹ The training will include an opportunity for hands on practice and role plays, extensive team protocols to take home for your reference, along with follow up mentorship for our group in the event we have any questions or require guidance as we attempt to use the team model.²

¹ The additional trainers will be picked from a list of trainers with the Collaborative Divorce Team Trainings LLC.

² The mentorship may not be available to you if you are from outside of the Calgary area, however, groups from outside of the Calgary area may discuss this availability directly with Nancy Ross.

When is the training?

March 10th from 5:30 – 8:30 pm, March 11th 8:30 am – 5:00 pm, and March 12th from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm at a location in Calgary to be announced.

What is the cost to you? $525.00 inclusive of GST.

(Includes light breakfast and lunch for two days)

What you need to do now to get in on this exciting training opportunity?

We need to receive a check in the amount of $100 by no later than December 15, 2009. The balance of the payment will be due on February 19, 2010.

The check should be payable to the Association of Collaborative Professionals (Calgary).

Please send the check c/o:

Beryl McNeill Barrister & Solicitor

Moe Hannah McNeill LLP

#710, 777 – 8th Avenue SW

Calgary, AB T2P 3R5

(403) 513-9652

We are asking for your advance commitment for this training as this is an expensive training that we expect that our association may be subsidizing for you. So ACP(Calgary) requires you to vote with your feet in advance so that we may take steps to plan on the additional funding that may be required.